

Curriculum Vitae for Norman Seaton Ed.D

801 Main
Dallas, Texas 75202
214-860-2356
NSeaton@dcccd.edu

Program Coordinator for the Programming and Database Career Track and Awards

Teaching Experience: Dr. Norman Seaton started teaching computer courses for El Centro College in 1978. His specialty has been applications development using IBM Server hardware and software systems.

He has recently upgraded his expertise to include technologies in the following areas:

1. Application and web servers
2. Databases, SQL, and PHP
3. Studio development tools by IBM, Microsoft, and Sun (Oracle).

Education:

Doctor of Education Degree	Ed.D.	Nova Southeastern University
Masters degree in Business	MBA	University of Dallas
Bachelor degree in Management	BA	University of Plano
Associate of Arts degree	AA	El Centro College
Associate of Applied Arts degree	AAA	El Centro College

Publications and Papers:

Coursework, curriculum development, and special interest publications

Professional Memberships:

Dr. Seaton is a member of the IBM Academic Initiative Program
<http://www-304.ibm.com/jct01005c/university/scholars/academicinitiative>
Dallas PHP club <http://DallasPHP.org>
Metro Midrange Systems Association (IBM Technologies) Academic Associate

Dr. Seaton's hobbies and extracurricular interest include:

National Accordion Association	President
North Texas Flight Instructor Assoc. & Aviation Safety	President
Accordionists and Teachers Guild	Board of Director
Texas Auctioneers Association	Licensed Auctioneer

Dr. Seaton is an educational advisor to the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulations \(TDLR\).