

Curriculum Vitae
Dr. Richard T. Newcomb II

Born 11/16/1959 in Duluth, MN

Education

High School Morgantown High School, W. Va.
Graduated 1977

College University of Chicago, B.A. in Mathematics, Cum Laude 1981

Graduate University of Wisconsin-Madison
Ph.D. in Mathematics, minor in Computer Science, 1988

Employment

1977-80 College Tutor

1981-82 Teacher, 7th-8th grade, Franciscan School on Papago Reservation, Pisinimo, AZ

1982-85 Teaching Assistant, Math Dept UW-
Madison

1985-88 Research Assistant, Math Dept UW-
Madison

1988-95 Assistant Professor, UTA Math Dept

1995-present Chair of Mathematics, Cistercian
Preparatory School, Irving, TX

1997-2004 Adjunct Professor at UTA and University of Dallas, various Semesters and summers

Other Responsibilities

2000-2005 Data Base Manager at Cistercian
2008- Director of the McNabb/GDCTM math
Contests

Publications

Authored or co-authored a number of papers in peer-reviewed journals in the area of viscosity solutions of partial differential equations

Awards

National Merit Finalist 1977
Mandelbrot National Coach of the Year 2000
I-Test National Sponsor of the Year 2001