

Vitae
William Stowe
Adjunct Instructor of History
5001 N. MacArthur Blvd.
Irving, TX 75038
Office A310
972-273-3480 (Phone)
972-273-3479 (fax)
wstowe@dccd.edu

Education

Ph.D. in History, Texas Christian University
MA in History, Southern Methodist University
BA in History, Centenary College of Louisiana
Additional classes taken at the University of Maryland College Park and the University of North Texas

Academic Teaching History

North Lake College, Adjunct Instructor, August 2010-present, August 2007-May 2009
Tarrant County College, Adjunct Instructor, August 2010-present, August 2007-August 2009
Tarrant County College, Temporary Full-Time Instructor, August 2009-July 2010
Louisiana State University in Shreveport, Assistant Professor, August 1990-May 1995
Texas Wesleyan University, Instructor, August 1978-May 1983
Lon Morris College, Instructor, June 1976-August 1976
Southern Methodist University, Instructor, June 1972-August 1972

Professional Publications

“Damned Funny: The Tragedy of Bert Williams,” Journal of Popular Culture
With Raymond Smock and Pete Daniel, “Master Guide,” The American History Slide Collection
With David Grimsted, “Black-White Humor,” Journal of Ethnic Studies