

Curriculum Vitae

Calvin Royall
4849 W. Illinois Ave.
214-860-8681
Cyr6480@dcccd.edu

Education

University of Texas at Dallas
M.A. in Humanities

Brooklyn College- Brooklyn, New York
Speech and Theater

Belford University
B.A. Speech and Theater

Teaching Experience

University of Texas at Dallas, Richardson, Texas-August-December 2010-
Adjunct Professor in Drama- director of "All My Sons-by Arthur Miller"
January 2010 – May 2010 -Lecturer – "Understanding Theater"

Brown University- Providence, Rhode Island – September 1980 – June 1988
Artist in Residence- Lecturer-Director-Actor-Writer

Paul Quinn College- Dallas, TX- October 1990-May 1991
Director/ Lecturer in Residence- created original work "Reveal"

KD Studios Acting Conservatory- Dallas, TX- September 1990- May 1996
Instructor

Wake Forest- Winston Salem, North Carolina – September 1997
Guest Lecturer "The Performing Artists of the Harlem Renaissance"

Publications and Papers

"Of Ebony Embers-vignettes of the Harlem renaissance" November 2010
Paper presented at Brookhaven College- Dallas, TX "Arts and Humanities Series"

"The Amazing Tools of the Performing Artist"- April 2010
Paper presented at the Texas Southern Univ. Houston, TX 2010 Spring Fine Arts Week

"Langston, Countee, Claude- forgotten poets" November 1998
Paper presented at the Performing Arts Week at University of Pennsylvania

"Blind Lemon Blues" by Dr. Alan Govenar and Akin Babatunde (Calvin Royall)
Published by Dramatic Publishing Co –New York, NY