

Curriculum Vitae

Joan Alaine Becker
301 N. Market St.
972-860-5049
jabecker@dcccd.edu

Education

The George Washington University
Master in Business Administration
Concentration: Organizational Development and Health Care

The Ohio State University
Bachelor of Science in Allied Health
Concentration: Radiologic Sciences and Administration

El Centro College
Certificate in Magnetic Resonance Imaging and Diagnostic Radiology by the American Registry of Radiologic Technology

Teaching Experience

El Centro College, Dallas, Texas September 7, 2011 to present
Developed curriculum, syllabus and overall structure, clinical practicum, and administered all grades.

The George Washington University, Washington, D.C. September 1978-May 1985
Division Chair: 2+2 Program in Radiologic Sciences and Administration
Program Director of Navy Radiologic Sciences Associate Degree program
Developed syllabus, hired faculty, completed accreditation materials, developed overall course structure, and administered all grades.

Owens Technical College, Perrysburg, Ohio June 1977-August 1978
Instructor – Diagnostic Radiology Department
Developing syllabus and overall course structure supervised students at 7 clinical sites and administered all grades.

Work Experience

UT Southwestern Medical Center, September 2009-July 2011. Magnetic Resonance Imaging Technologist at Rogers.
MRI Research technologist on the Gulf War Syndrome Research project.

Publications and Papers

Consensus Report of MRI Program Directors on Issues Affecting the Future of MRI Education in the United States, accepted for publication to AEIRS Radiologic Science and Education Fall 2013.

Board Commitments

Association of Educators in Imaging and Radiologic Science 2014-2017

American Society of Radiologic Technologists committee on RT Advocacy 2014-2015
EMERITUS BOARD MEMBER OF THE DALLAS CHILDRENS THEATER

Presentations

Texas Society of MEDICAL ASSISTANTS, JANUARY 2, 2013 ON MRI SAFETY FOR MEDICAL ASSISTANTS,
DALLAS, TEXAS