

Alexes M. Terry

Curriculum Vita

Eastfield Community College
Social Sciences and Human Services Division
Office: G237
972-860-7156
amt4475@dccd.edu

EDUCATION

Graduate Certificate Candidate, Texas Women's University, Denton, TX, Women's Studies Major, 2014
M.A., Louisiana Tech University, Ruston, Louisiana, U.S. History/African American History Major, 2010
❖ Master's Thesis: "A Jet to Success: John H. Johnson, African American Women and Jet Magazine, 1951-1955"
B.A., Grambling State University, Grambling, Louisiana, United States History Major, 2008

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Lakeview Centennial High School, Garland, Texas August 2013-Present
Teacher: History/Sociology

Eastfield Community College, Mesquite, Texas August 2013-Present
Adjunct Instructor: History

DeSoto High School, DeSoto, Texas August 2010-July 2013
Teacher: US History/ African American History

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

"Two Eyes of a Geisha," Phi Alpha Theta Conference, Lafayette, Louisiana, March 2008
"Black Politicians in Louisiana During Reconstruction," Summer Program for Undergraduate Research/ UCLA Ralph J. Bunche Summer Humanities Institute, Los Angeles, California, August 2008
"Colfax Massacre: A Memory Lost and A Story Untold," Phi Alpha Theta Conference, Monroe, Louisiana, March 2009
"And Beauty Was Her Name: Image Representation of Black Women in Jet Magazine, 1952-1955," Louisiana Tech Liberal Arts Symposium, Ruston, Louisiana, April 2009
"Colfax Massacre: A Memory Lost and A Story Untold," Phi Alpha Theta Biennial Convention, San Diego, CA, January 2010
"Here Comes the Bride: John H. Johnson, African-American Women, and Jet Magazine, 1951-1955," Phi Alpha Theta Conference, Lafayette, Louisiana, March 2010

PROFESSIONAL/ HONORS ORGANIZATIONS

Phi Alpha Theta National History Honors Society
Gamma Beta Phi National Honor Society
Pi Gamma Mu National Honor Society
Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities