

Curriculum Vitae

Camilla Gant
El Centro College
801 Main Street, Dallas, Texas 75202
214-860-2202
cgant@dcccd.edu

Education

Texas Woman's University, Denton, TX
M.B.A

Texas Woman's University, Denton, TX
M.A. in Women's Studies with a focus on Social Justice

Texas Woman's University, Denton, TX
PB/M.S. in Accounting

University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Milwaukee, WI
B.A. in Sociology

Teaching Experience

DCCCD, Dallas, TX
Adjunct Instructor – Introduction to Marketing and Personal Finance

Hewitt Associates (HA-U), Lincolnshire, IL and The Woodlands, TX
Instructor - Corporate Training
Generic Pricing Modules (GNPR)
Query Based Extraction (QBE)
Traces and Debugging - COBOL and C#
Human Resource Information System setup for proprietary system (HRIS)
Health Management Financial Manager
Check Print Processing (3 cycles) – developed curriculum
Kit Management (Supply Chain)

Publications and Papers

Women of Color and Survival in the Academy, Texas Woman's University Cultural Connections Leadership Conference: Strengthening the Leader Within, Office of Intercultural Services, November 5, 2010.

Transformations: Transitioning from Radical to Liberatory Feminism through Radical Alliances paper accepted for presentation at the UNT PST Conference, Student Philosophy Symposium, University of North Texas, November 12, 2010.

Nappy hair Book Reading and Panel: Panel topic 'Motherhood and Hair Care', Women's Studies Graduate Student Association, Texas Woman's University, February 23, 2011.

Transformations: Transitioning from Radical to Liberatory Feminism through Radical Alliances paper accepted for presentation at the Southwestern Social Science Association annual meetings, Las Vegas, NV, March 2011.