

Curriculum Vitae

Joseph A. Vicario, Jr.
Richland College
JoeVicario@dcccd.edu

Education

Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, D.C.
Juris Doctorate, cum laude 1978

University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia
B.A., Government and Foreign Affairs, with distinction 1975

Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas
Graduate Certificate in Dispute Resolution, 2006

Relevant Work Experience

Texas Instruments Incorporated, Dallas, Texas
Senior Corporate Counsel (November 1992 – Present)

Mr. Vicario is Senior Counsel for International Trade Regulation at Texas Instruments. He advises the company on the development of corporate strategies for international competition, with special emphasis on export and import regulatory issues, FCPA compliance, and other trade regulations. Mr. Vicario also serves as the Secretary to the TI Ethics and Compliance Committee, legal counsel to TI's Ethics Office and is a member of TI's Corporate Compliance Committee.

Teaching Experience, Publications and Presentations

University of Texas-Dallas, Guest Lecturer with UTD's Project Management Executive Education Program, 1999-2005.

American Conference Institute's 5th EAR Boot Camp, "How to Know If You Are Getting Export Control Reform Right", February 23, 2015.

American Conference Institute's 13th ITAR Boot Camp, "How to Define ITAR-Controlled "Technical Data" and "Defense Services", February 24, 2015.

American Conference Institute's 4th EAR Boot Camp, "Supply Chain, End-Use and End-User Requirements", February 26, 2014.

American Conference Institute's 7th FCPA Boot Camp, "Keeping Employees Engaged in and Adhering to Your Anti-Corruption Compliance Program", January 23, 2013.

ABA's Section of International Law Spring Meeting, "Minimizing Legal Risks in a Global Economy – Practical Advice on International Compliance", April 18, 2012.

The Anatomy of Antidumping Proceedings: A Case Study of the Antifriction Bearings Investigations, 15 NORTH CAROLINA JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW AND COMMERCIAL REGULATION 250 (SPRING 1990).

The Domestic Industry in Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Proceedings Involving Imports of Processed Agricultural Commodities: Legal Fiction Versus Commercial Reality, 14 SYRACUSE JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW AND COMMERCE 363 (Spring 1988).