

Byron E. Walker
801 Main Street
Dallas, TX 75202
byron.walker@dccc.edu
214-860-2202

EDUCATION

BA Sociology 1998	MA Economics 2007	JD 2009
Morehouse College Atlanta, Georgia	University of Oklahoma Norman, Oklahoma	University of Hawaii Honolulu, Hawaii

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

5/15-Present Economics Instructor, El Centro Community College: Teaching Macroeconomics and Introduction to Economics

11/14-Present Teacher, Wilmer Hutchins Elementary School: Taught 4th Grade English Language Arts and Social Studies during 2014-2015 school year; Teaching 5th Grade Science for 2015-2016 school year

10/08-6/09 Special Education Teacher, Pearl Harbor Elementary School: Taught Language Arts and Math to 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade Special Education Students.

8/08-8/09 Economics Instructor, TransPacific Hawaii College, Honolulu, HI: Taught Microeconomics

8/07-8/08 Economics Instructor, Central Texas College, Scholfield Barracks, HI: Taught Macroeconomics

8/07-8/08 Site Director, Central Texas College, Scholfield Barracks, HI: operated an off-site CTC campus requiring analytical, conceptual, and human relations skills. Supported CTC academic programs for local military and civilian communities while managing financial, fiscal, and human resource responsibilities.

- Supervision and coordination of all administrative, instructional and contract services at site(s) to include any sub-site within the annual budget.
- Timely submission of personnel documents, payroll, invoices, Term documents and reports, and other reports and documents that may be required by Main Campus, Military, State, Veterans, or other agency.
- Prepares site budget and monitors all expenses to include purchasing of supplies, and services, and equipment, furniture and other capitol expenditure items to ensure that the site operates within the guidelines established by the annual budget.
- Promote the college and programs through various media.

8/97-5/98 Substitute Teacher, Fulton County School District