

Robert Canuto Rodríguez
To Whom Much Is Given, Much is Expected

EDUCATION

M.S. Counseling Texas A & M – Commerce 2008
M.P.A. in Finance: New York University, 1999
M.A. in Latin American Studies: Vanderbilt University 1994
B.A. in Spanish & Political Science: University of Missouri-Columbia 1992

PUBLIC SCHOOL EXPERIENCE

- 8/14-Now Spanish Teacher: North Garland High School. Teacher of Spanish II and Spanish III Pre-Advanced Placement/Dual Credit (PAPDC)
- 8/12-8/14: Spanish Teacher: Crandall ISD. Department Chair and Advanced Placement Coordinator; Languages Other Than English (LOTE).
- 8/02-8/12: Guidance Counselor: Dallas ISD (DISD). Responsible for guidance, counseling, testing, parent education, special projects and data analysis.
- 8/98-8/02: Spanish Teacher, Naaman Forest High School (Garland Independent School District). Taught Spanish I & II to all high school grades.
- 6/98-8/00: Adjunct Professor of Economics Trinity Valley Community College
I taught courses on Macroeconomics and Microeconomics to night school students.
- 8/96-7/97: Civics Teacher: New York City Public Schools. Taught Government, Economics, and Spanish courses to inner-city children in Brooklyn, New York. Also worked with after school programs, curriculum development, and testing.

ECONOMIC AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT EXPERIENCE

- 7/97-7/98: Director of Research: Garland Economic Development Partnership (GEDP). Assist the Executive Vice-President and Vice-President with GEDP's business attraction and retention efforts. I was responsible for providing strategic information on taxes, demographics, real estate, and local government issues. I was also responsible for marketing materials, newsletters, and presentations.

HONORS

Harry S. Truman Scholar, NYU Dean's Fellow, Department of Education
Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellow, Department of State Fellow