

Azeem A. Mobh
El Centro College- Dallas County Community College District
azeem.mobh@dcccd.edu

Education

University of Texas- Arlington, Arlington, TX
Masters of Arts in History
December 2014

University of Houston, Houston, TX
Bachelors of Arts in History
Minor in Education
Dean's List
December 2009

Teaching Experience

Instructional Connections Inc., Dallas, TX December 2014 – Present
Online Academic Coach – History 2311 and History 2312,
Assist online freshmen students with content material, and administered grades for papers and discussion boards.

Ismaili Religious Education Center (REC), Euless, TX – August 2012 – December 2013
Volunteer 9th Grade RE Teacher
Facilitate RE classes, discussions, assignments dealing with Religious Education.

Ismaili Religious Education Center (REC), Houston, TX – August 2011—May 2012
Volunteer 9th Grade RE Co-Teacher
Assist classroom teacher with discussions and assignments.

Publications and Papers

An Islamic History of the United States: A Transnational Approach, February 2014
Student Speaker at the Annual Undergraduate and Graduate Conference in History, Dallas, TX
Presented an independent research paper at the conference.

TEDxUTA, March 2014
Auditioned as a Student Speaker, Arlington, TX
Topic: Connecting Islam to the American Identity