

Curriculum Vitae

George D. Alecusan

Richland College
School of Learning Enhancement and Academic Development
12800 Abrams Rd.
Dallas, TX 75243

Education:

*B.A., Political Science & History, Ashland University

*M.A./Ph.D. (Cand.), Politics/Political Philosophy, University of Dallas

Academic Employment:

*Adjunct Professor of Government, Richland College (2015)

Courses Taught:

-Federal Government

-Texas Government

*Graduate Assistant, Department of Politics, University of Dallas (2013-2014)

*Research Assistant, Department of Political Science, Ashland University (2007-2010)

Professional Development:

* Conference Paper, "The Principles of the Electoral College and The Politics of Electoral Reform," Midwest Political Science Association (Spring 2013)

*Colloquium Paper, "Lessons Learned from Troy: Homer's Depiction of the Hero in the Odyssey," Braniff Graduate School, Institute for Philosophic Studies Colloquium, University of Dallas (Fall 2012)

*Conference Paper, "Scrutinizing Statesmen: Abraham Lincoln's Understanding of Henry Clay and Stephen Douglas," Southern Political Science Association (Spring 2012)