

Rosalind Nickerson

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Results-oriented Project Manager with a solid track record of managing large initiatives. As a Project Manager, my results are based on my ability to collaborate and create strong partnerships across large organizations. One of my strongest keys to success is my ability to build trust and confidence in my teams - from analysts and developers to senior executives.

- Proficient in all phases of the SDLC and Scrum.
 - Analytical, deeply driven professional with Account Management, Analytical Research and Project Management experience in developing test case scenarios and system testing, streamlining procedures, improving inventory and revenue control, and increasing department efficiency through effective business strategy.
 - Excellent at translating technical requirements to business requirements.
 - Experienced working with Cross Functional work teams to meet client expectations.
 - Adept at needs determination, solution development, and resource management.
 - Core competencies include: Agile and Waterfall Methodology Project Management, Product Development, People Leadership, Industry Analysis, Strategic Planning, Team Leadership, and Relationship Building, Cloud Computing Technology
 - Microsoft Office: Project, Visio, Access, One Note, Publisher, Word, and Excel
 - Working knowledge of SharePoint, Rally Dev, PRISM, ITUP, PMO Portal
-

EDUCATION

Scaled Agile Framework (SAFe)

10/2014

Agile Bronze Certification

IBM / AT&T ADM Account – 08/2013

Project Management Institute – Pursuing PMP Certification

Member of PMI Dallas Chapter

09/2011- present

Masters of Business Administration – Concentration in Project Management

Dallas Baptist University; Dallas, Texas – 12/2010

Received an advanced certification in Project Management

Completed further studies of International Project Management and International Management Dallas Baptist University; Dallas, Texas - 08/2011 thru 12/2011