

Jeffrey T. Landrum

4849 W. Illinois Ave
Dallas, TX 75211
(214)-860-8830

Educational history:

University of Texas, Dallas

Ph.D. student in Humanities, History of Ideas, 2013 - present
Areas of study - 19th and 20th century intellectual history
Holocaust Studies
Modern Europe
20th Century German literature

Amberton University

M.B.A. in Strategic Leadership, 2012

Tarleton State University

Studied for M.A. in History, 1996-2000.
Completed 30 graduate hours in U.S., Latin American and European history.

Abilene Christian University

B.A. in History, 1995

Employment history:

Mountain View College (Dallas County Community College) - Instructor, 2016 to Present

Courses taught:
-HIST 1301 - U.S. Survey Course

Responsibilities include:
-Organize coursework, syllabus and lectures
-Evaluate student work

University of Texas, Dallas - Teaching Assistant, 2014 to present:

Courses supported
-HIST 1301, 1302 - U.S. History Survey courses
-HUMA 1301 - Exploration of the Humanities.

Responsibilities include:

- Grading coursework.
- Tutoring and mentoring students.
- Meeting with students during office hours.
- Recording attendance and grades.
- Proctoring exams.
- Delivering lectures and review sessions.

Tarleton State University - Graduate Assistant 1998-2000.

Responsibilities include:

- Overseeing Fine Arts Department lab.
- Proctoring tests.
- Grading assignments.
- Guest lectured for American History course.

Conference presentations:

"The Holocaust and Music: Spiritual Resistance, Propaganda and Control," RAW: Research, Art, Writing - An Interdisciplinary Graduate Student Symposium. University of Texas, Dallas March 5, 2016.

"Else Lasker-Schüler: Intentionally Living Between the Lines," RAW: Research, Art, Writing - An Interdisciplinary Graduate Student Symposium. University of Texas, Dallas February 25, 2017.

Previous Academic associations:

The Assembly, Tarleton History Club - President 1998-1999.

Phi Alpha Theta, Tarleton Chapter of the International Historical Society - Historian, 1998 - 1999.

Far Away Places, Tarleton Foreign Language Club - Vice President 1998-1999.