

Kristin Bocchine

Richland College
History Department and Philosophy Department
12800 Abrams Rd
Dallas, TX 75243
kbocchine@dcccd.edu

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

Ancient history and religion, especially in the Roman Empire and the Middle East, to the fifth century C.E.; Second Temple Judaism; Rabbinic Judaism; Origins and early development of Christianity.

EDUCATIONAL HISTORY:

2013-Present

University of North Texas, Denton, TX

Completing Doctorate of Philosophy in History

Dissertation: "Beyond Moses, Circumcision, and Pork: What Gentiles Knew about Jews in the Early Roman Empire"

ABD August 2015

2010-2012

University of Nebraska Kearney, Kearney, NE

Masters of Arts in History (Summa Cum Laude)

Thesis: "Romanizing an Empire: Claudius and the Jews of Alexandria and Cyrenaica"

2006-2008

University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC

Master of Arts in Religious Studies (Magna Cum Laude)

Thesis: "The Social Situation of Hopelessness: A Study of 1 Thessalonians"

2002-2005

Charleston Southern University, Charleston, SC

Bachelor of Arts in History and Religion (Magna Cum Laude)

Honors Thesis: "Why Matthew Uses a Minor Prophet for a Major Quote: The Use of Hosea 11:1 in Matthew 2:15"

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

August 2018-Present

Lecturer I, The University of Texas at Dallas

Richardson, TX

Primary instructor for HIST 3386 (World History to 1500).

July-August 2018

Instructor, On Campus Texas (OCT), University of North Texas

Denton, TX

Primary instructor for HIST 2620 (United States History since 1865) for On Campus Texas (OCT). OCT is a special program for international students through the University of North Texas. The program offers smaller and slower-paced core classes to international students to help them acclimate to college in the United States.

January 2017-May 2017

Graduate Student Assistant, University of North Texas Department of History

Denton, TX

Created the online content, assignments, and interactive material for HIST 1050 (World Civilization to 1500) and HIST 1060 (World Civilization after 1500). This includes the creation of course templates, learning modules, integrating learning objectives, and working closely with the Center for Learning Enhancement Assessment and Redesign (CLEAR) to create an approved course rubric for online instruction. The courses are designed to comply with university disability accommodations and online accreditation requirements. This assistantship resulted in the creation of complete online versions for World Civilization to 1500 and World Civilization after 1500.

July 2016-Present

Adjunct Faculty, Richland College, Dallas County Community College District

Dallas, TX

Primary instructor both on campus and online for PHIL 1304, Introduction to World Religion and HIST 1302, US History Since 1860. Class includes traditional, nontraditional, and dual-credit students. Primary instructor for various classes in the Emeritus Program for Continuing Adult Learning. Examples of courses include: Jesus' Judaism and the Parting of the Ways.

August 2014-Present

Teaching Fellow, University of North Texas Department of History

Denton, TX

Primary instructor for HIST 1050 (World Civilization to 1500), HIST 1060 (World Civilization after 1500), and HIST 2620 (United States History since 1865) both in-person and online versions.

August 2013-July 2014, May 2015, July –August 2016, January-May 2018, August-December 2018

Teaching Assistant, University of North Texas Department of History

Denton, TX

Assisted the assigned professors in many tasks including the creation of course material, grading of coursework and keeping attendance in HIST 1050 (World Civilization to 1500), HIST 2610 (US History to 1865),

HIST 2620 (US History Post 1865), HIST 3760 (Roman Civilization), and HIST 4570 (Japanese History).

August 2013-December 2018

Library Assistant, University of North Texas Department of History

Denton, Texas

Worked as an assistant in the Kingsbury-Thomason History Departmental Library.

August 2013-December 2018

Tutor, University of North Texas Department of History

Denton, Texas

Tutored, administered exams, and assisted students for the Department of History in the departmental help center.

August 2009-May 2013

Adjunct Instructor, Horry-Georgetown Technical College

Conway, SC

Primary Instructor for Religion 103 (Comparative Religion), History 101 (Western Civilization to 1689), and History 102 (Western Civilization Post 1689).

July 2008-August 2008

Instructor, Univ. of South Carolina Dept. of Religious Studies

Columbia, SC

Primary Instructor for Religion 313 (Johannine Literature).

January 2008-May 2008

Graduate Teaching Assistant, Univ. of South Carolina Dept. of Religious Studies

Columbia, SC

Primary instructor for Religion 111 (Biblical Literature and History), and managed departmental office several hours a week.

I certify that statements made by me in this vitae are true, complete, and correct.