

Jonathan Mutinda Waita

EDUCATION

MSc (Master of Science) In Epistemology, Ethics, and Mind (2017)
The University of Edinburgh, UK
(Philosophy)

PhD Theological Studies, (May 2012)
Dallas Theological Seminary, Dallas, TX
(Theology and Philosophy)

ThM (Master of Theology), (May 2004)
Dallas Theological Seminary, Dallas, TX
Major: Systematic Theology
Historical Theology
Apologetics
Minor: Biblical Greek Grammar
Bible Exposition

BTh (Bachelor of Theology), (March 1993)
Scott Christian University, Kenya

A-Level (British Advanced Level certificate) (December 1981)
Major: History, English Grammar and Literature, World Religions

SCHOLARLY ORGANIZATION MEMBERSHIP

Evangelical Theological Society (ETS)
Evangelical Philosophical Society (EPS)

TEACHING JOB EXPERIENCE

Faculty: Adjunct Professor of Philosophy, Richland College, Dallas, TX (Starting Date: Fall 2016)

Faculty: Adjunct Professor of Philosophy, Tarrant County Community College, Fort Worth TX (Starting Date: March 1st 2016). This is an on-campus program.

Faculty: Adjunct Professor of Theology South University College of Theology (Starting Date: 11/ 30th 2015) I teach theology and Bible interpretation, and my students are pursuing Doctor of Ministry degree. This is an on-line program.

Faculty: Adjunct Professor of theology, Apologetics and church history, Liberty University School of Divinity I teach on-line graduate level students (January 1st 2014 to-date).

Graduate Teacher Assistant: Dallas Theological Seminary, Dallas TX (August 2008-May 2013)
Position requires competence in facilitating on-line graduate students' learning through course instruction, guidance, and assignment grading

Instructor: Dallas Theological Seminary-Center for Biblical Studies (2003-2004)

Teacher Assistant: Dallas Theological Seminary, Dallas, TX (09/06/2004-02/20/2005)

Grader: Biblical Hebrew, Dallas Theological Seminary (2002-2003)

Grader: Biblical Greek, Dallas Theological Seminary (2002-2003)

Instructor: Pwani Christian College, Mombasa, Kenya (May 1997-June 2000)
Was head of department of apologetics, ethics, world religions, and systematic theology

WORK

AUTHORIZATION

(Green Card) Permanent Residency and Work Authorization (With Effect from June 15st 2013)

AWARDS/HONORS

The Rollin Thomas Chafer Award in Apologetics
Dallas Theological Seminary (April 2004)

The Rollin Thomas Chafer Award in Apologetics is an annual award given to the master's level student who submits the best paper on apologetics

WRITING PROJECTS

PhD Dissertation

Title: Carl F. H. Henry and the Metaphysical Foundations of Epistemology (2012).

ThM (Master of Theology) Thesis

Title: The Role of Faith and Reason in Thomas Aquinas's Epistemology (April 2004).

MSc (Master of Science) Thesis

Title: Does the Antilogical Credo Quia Absurdum Est Define Tertullian's Epistemology?

Article published in International Theological Journal, Testamentum Imperium (vol.3, 2011)

Title: The Irrevocable Nature of Salvation as Manifestation of God's Attributes.

The paper may be found at this website: may be found in this website:

http://www.preciousheart.net/ti/2011/151_Waita_Irrevocable_Salvation_Gods_Attributes.pdf.

Presented a Paper Entitled, "The Bearing of Carl F. H. Henry's Voluntaristic Epistemology on His View of Biblical Inerrancy (at the annual meeting of Evangelical Theological Society at Baltimore, MA, on November 19th 2013).

Accepted for Publishing by Journal of Evangelical Theological Society, my paper, "The Bearing of Carl F. H. Henry's Voluntaristic Epistemology on His View of Biblical Inerrancy"

Book Review for Bibliotheca Sacra

Book Title: Rediscovering the Triune God: The Trinity in Contemporary Theology. By Stanley J. Grenz. Minneapolis: Fortress Press, 2004 (Bibliotheca Sacra vol. 164 (January-March 2007))

Participated in Research Panel for practical theology book

Book Title: The Holy Spirit and the Church in Africa. Ed. Richrad J. Gehman. Kijabe, Kenya: Kijabe Printing Press (2008)

Under Review for Publishing: A book entitled, "Towards an Orthodox Christian Epistemology: A Conversation with Carl F. H. Henry"

Moderator: I moderated a session (Ecclesiology and Historical Studies [1:00 PM- 4:10 PM, November 21st 2014]) during last year's Annual Meeting of Evangelical Theological Society at San Diego, CA

SOME of THE COURSES I HAVE TAUGHT:

T112—World Religions

(Major Religions of the World, including Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Zoroastrianism, Sikhism, and Jainism)

T221—African Traditional Religions

(Philosophical and theological tenets of African religions, including African ontology, African cosmogony, the soteriological role of the living-dead, as well as the metaphysical underpinnings of African communalistic living.

APOL 500—Introduction to Christian Apologetics including:

biblical, theological, philosophical issues, world views and apologetic methods.

APOL 610—Christian Apologetics II including: miracles and theism,

Christ's resurrection, its rejection and rebuttals.

THEO 510—Survey of Theology

THEO 530—Systematic Theology II including: hamartiology, Christology, pneumatology, soteriology, ecclesiology, and eschatology.

RTCH 500—Introduction to Research and Ministry Preparation. The course is on balancing Christian spirituality with theological scholarship and ministry commitment.

CHHI 510—Survey of History of Christianity—The Church through the Centuries.

CHHI 520—History of Christianity I, covering: Christianity up to the era of Reformation.

PHIL 1301—Introduction to Philosophy, covering: metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, truth, justice, social philosophy, political philosophy, mind-body problem.

PHIL 2306-83950—Introduction to Ethics
