

HILARY B. TAYLOR

EDUCATION

Yale University, BA, May 1994, cum laude, distinction in the English Major

University of Michigan Law School, JD, May 1999, cum laude

- Clarence Darrow Scholarship – three year merit-based scholarship providing full tuition.
- 1999 Daniel Mixer Award – awarded for contributions to the academic community.

New York University Stern School of Business

- Student in the Part-Time MBA Program, January 2007-May 2008.

CURRENT POSITION

El Centro Community College, Dallas, TX

Adjunct Professor (2017-present)

- Adjunct Professor in the Government Department.
- Teach Federal Government and Texas State Government to community college students.
- Engage with students to promote continued education and career placement.

LEGAL WORK EXPERIENCE

Los Angeles County Alternate Defender Office, Los Angeles, CA

Attorney (2008-2009)

- Represented low-income clients charged with felony offenses.
- Wrote and argued motions, investigated cases, managed extensive court calendars.

Kreindler & Kreindler, LLP, New York, NY

Attorney (2006-2008)

- Litigated mass tort, aviation, securities and whistleblower cases on plaintiff's side.
- Participated in mediation and arbitration hearings in multi-district litigations.
- Managed business litigation and arbitration cases, wrote motions and appeals.

Capital Defense Project of Southeast Louisiana, New Orleans, LA

Attorney (2002-2005)

24th Judicial District Indigent Defender Board, Jefferson Parish, LA

- Represented clients charged in major felony cases, managed a docket with over 50 felony cases.
- Independently litigated over 25 jury trials, briefed and argued motions and appeals.
- Led trial teams on death penalty cases and assisted in the litigation of 5 death penalty trials.
- Extensive experience with expert witnesses, jury consultants and forensic science.

Office of the Public Defender, Contra Costa County, CA

Attorney (2000-2002)

- Represented clients in misdemeanor and felony cases.
- Independently litigated 50 jury trials.

Howard, Rice, Nemerovski, Falk & Canady, San Francisco, CA

Attorney (1999-2000)

- Litigated business and securities cases.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Sarah T. Reed Senior High School, New Orleans, LA

Teacher (1995-1996)

- Taught mathematics at a public high school. Assistant coach for girls' basketball team.

Americorps Volunteer, Chauvin, LA

Teacher (1994-1995)

- Established an education program at a women's prison.
- Organized an after-school program in a low-income housing development.
- Recipient of 1995 NAACP Excellence Award.

SKILLS and BAR ADMISSIONS

- Advanced Spanish speaker. Significant experience representing Spanish-speaking clients.
- Admitted to the Bar in California, Louisiana, New York, and Washington, D.C.