

Curriculum Vitae

Cheryl A. Hampton
Eastfield College
3737 Motley Dr., Mesquite, TX 75150
(972) 391-1047
CherylHampton@dcccd.edu

Education

University of Missouri-Kansas City
Kansas City, Missouri
M.A. in English Language and Literature

University of Kansas
Lawrence, Kansas
M.A. in Communication Studies

Baker University
Baldwin City, Kansas
B.B.A. MCL in Business Administration

Teaching Experience

Eastfield College, Mesquite, TX August 2016
Adjunct Instructor – English 1301, English 1302

Tarrant County College, Fort Worth, TX – August 2016
Adjunct Instructor – English 1301, Speech 1311, Speech 1315

Publications and Papers

University of Missouri Kansas City, UEC/EGSA Interdisciplinary Symposium, Kansas City, MO – April 2014
– present paper, “‘Beware Lest He Awakes’: Rhetoric and Beauty in the Anti-Lynching Literature of Angelina Weld Grimké”

University of Missouri Kansas City, UEC/EGSA Interdisciplinary Symposium, Kansas City, MO – April 2014
– audio-visual presentation, “Hanging with Billy: Multiple Teaching Opportunities Using Melville’s Billy Budd, Sailor”

University of Missouri Kansas City, EGSA Symposium, Kansas City, MO – November 2010 – present paper, “An Ethos for Post-Humanity: The Role of Ethics in More Than Human and Frankenstein”

Central States Communication Association Convention, Omaha, NE – April 2003 – present paper, “Image Propaganda: Values Advocacy in the Rhetoric of a Pharmaceutical Advertising Campaign”

Central States Communication Association Convention, Milwaukee, WI – April 2002 – present paper, “When Members Have True Veto Power: The Rhetoric of a Church Capital Expenditure”

Mind’s Eye, Johnson County Community College Literary Magazine – April 2008 – short story, “Letting Go”