

Curriculum Vitae

David Murphy
3737 Motley Dr. Mesquite, TX 75150
Rm C236
(636) 328-2794 davidmurphy@dcccd.edu

Education

Missouri State University, Springfield, MO
B.S.E.D. History & Secondary Education

University of Missouri- St. Louis, MO

M.A. History

M.A. Thesis Title: Ideal Patriots: The Boy Scouts of America as Propaganda During the First World War

Teaching Experience

Eastfield College, Mesquite, TX-Adjunct Professor Fall 2017- present

Developed syllabus and overall structure, weekly discussions and lectures, and administered all grades.

Kirkwood School District, Kirkwood, MO- Substitute Teacher 2013-2017

Serve as a substitute three to five times weekly at the middle/high school. Selected as a preferred substitute by three full-time teachers. Instructed a variety of students including traditional, non-traditional, and international pupils.

School District of University City, University City, MO- Substitute Teacher 2013-2016

Served two long-term substitute assignments teaching U.S. History at University City High School. Implemented daily lesson plans, managed classrooms, recorded grades, and monitored attendance.

Springfield Public Schools, Springfield, MO- Student Teacher January- May 2013

Developed and taught lesson plans for U.S. History courses. Maintained classroom attendance and grades. Lesson plans used by Missouri State's social science division accreditation.

Missouri State Learning Commons, Springfield, MO- History Tutor 2011-2013

Assisted students with survey history courses both one-on-one and in small groups. Helped students with course work, study skills, and time management. Taught to a variety of students including traditional, non-traditional, and international pupils.

