

FELISHA AVERY-SMITH

Professor of History Richland College 12800 Abrams Rd, Dallas, TX 75243

SUMMARY

Motivating and talented History Professor driven by a passion to inspire all students to succeed. Consistently creating and implementing student-centered spaces that promote active engagement utilizing traditional and non-traditional resources. Stunning track record in education.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Film History Researcher
- Engaging Public Speaker
- Innovative and Creative
- Writer
- Curriculum and Instructional Designer
- Lecturer
- Amateur Archaeologist
- Professional Museum Services Provider
- Cedar Hill Museum Board Member

Accomplishments

- Currently authoring a coffee table book focusing on alcohol history.
- Special interest involves the transatlantic slave trade in the Caribbean, currently drafting grant proposal to study how archives and museums in the Caribbean Islands protect their heritage and history.
- Student author for college textbook, Biology Eldra Solomon, Linda Berg, Diana W. Martin

Cengage Learning, Feb 16, 2004 - Science - 1024 pages

Experience

Dallas County Community Colleges Richland Campus, Dallas, TX

History Adjunct Professor

January 2018-Present

- Successfully engage students at a high level in their knowledge of US history
- Experience in delivering dual credit and traditional undergraduate history courses

- Highlight and enhance historical thinking with the injection of exceptional case studies that provide depth and reality of the time period

Tarrant County Community Colleges, Ft. Worth, TX History Adjunct Professor	July 5, 2017-Present
Adecco-Mcgraw-Hill, US Education Consultant	October 2014-Present
Intuit, Plano, TX 2014 Consultant Project Manager/ISD	January 2014-April
7-Eleven Corporation, Dallas, TX November 2013 Consultant Instructional Designer	September 2013-
MIND Research Institute, Irvine, CA May 2013 Education Implementation and Support Representative	July 2006-
Dallas Museum of Nature and Science, Dallas, TX 2004-July 2006 Master Educator	July

Education

M.A.
The University of Texas at Arlington; Arlington, TX

B.S.
Texas Woman's University -Denton, TX

I certify that statements made by me in this vitae are true, complete, and correct.