

Richland College Department of Music
Brenton Caldwell, Adjunct Professor of Viola and Violin
BCaldwell@dcccd.edu
12800 Abrams Road, Dallas, TX 75243-2199
Humanities Division
972.238.6250

Education

Lynn University, M.M., 2013-2015
The Academy-A Program of Carnegie Hall, the Juilliard School, and the Weill Music Institute in Collaboration with the NYC Dept. of Education, post-graduate fellowship program, 2007-2010
Curtis Institute of Music, Diploma, 2004-2007
Cleveland Institute of Music, B.M., 2000-2004

Teaching Experience

Finalist and Runner-up, University of Kansas, one year viola professor position, 2017
Curtis Summerfest, Young Artist Summer Program, viola and chamber music faculty, 2014-2015
Texas Strings Camp, viola and chamber music faculty, 2014-2015
New World School of the Arts Viola Day, guest artist, 2015-present
Ensemble ACJW Abu Dhabi Residency, lessons, sectionals, and masterclasses, Abu Dhabi Arts Festival,
March 2012
Ensemble ACJW South African Residency, lessons, sectionals and masterclasses with the Bochabela
Strings, June 2011
Illinois State University Viola Day, faculty and performer, 2011
Medellín Festicámara Internacional, faculty and performer, 2011
Youngstown State University, masterclass, 2010
Masterclass for the studio of Jeffrey Irvine, Cleveland Institute of Music, 2010
Partner Teacher at P.S. 62 through ACJW Fellowship, Queens, NY, 2007-2010
Skidmore College, Ensemble ACJW residency, lessons/coachings, 2009
Amelia Island Chamber Music Festival, High School chamber music coach, 2006-2007
Teaching Assistant for Karen Tuttle, Banff, 2003
Private Students, 1998-present

Orchestral Experience

Santa Fe Opera Orchestra, one year section violist, 2016-2017
Sarasota Orchestra, substitute list violist, 2017-present
New York Philharmonic, substitute list violist, 2010-present
Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, substitute list violist, 2015-present
National Symphony Orchestra, substitute list violist, 2013-present
Alabama Symphony Orchestra, substitute list violist, 2012-present
KZN Philharmonic, guest principal violist, Durban, South Africa, June 2011
Boston Philharmonic, guest principal violist, 2011

