

Hello I'm Kate See

kate.see@bishoplynch.org

Experience

AUGUST 2018 - PRESENT

Bishop Lynch High School, Dallas - High School Math Teacher

- Teach variety of courses, including Algebra 1, Calculus 1, Calculus 2, and Statistics

AUGUST 2018 - PRESENT

Eastfield Community College, Dallas - Adjunct/ Dual Enrollment Professor

- Teach variety of courses, including Calculus 1, Calculus 2, and Statistics

NOVEMBER 2015 - MAY 2018

All Saints Catholic School, Dallas - Middle School Math Teacher

- Taught 6th and 7th grade mathematics and 8th grade Algebra.
- Took the initiative to create and facilitate a flipped classroom for student driven learning, with positive responses from students and parents
- Plan 8th grade graduation and coordinate other activities, such as field trips, May Crowning, and high school visits as an 8th grade homeroom teacher

JANUARY 2014 - MAY 2015

Texas Tech University, Lubbock - Undergraduate Teaching Assistant

- Assisted with the instruction of Business Algebra, Business Calculus, Calculus II, and online sections of Calculus II
- Evaluated and recorded student performance on homework and exams
- Held office hours for personalized one-on-one instruction with students needing further help with the material

Education

JUNE 2014 - MAY 2017

Texas Tech University, Lubbock - Masters of Arts

Masters in Mathematics, GPA: 3.7

JUNE 2015 - December 2015

Texas A&M, Commerce

Earned 15 hours of education credits through the Masters in Curriculum and Instruction program, GPA: 4.0

AUGUST 2012 - MAY 2015

Texas Tech University, Lubbock - Bachelors of Science

Major in Mathematics with a minor in Actuarial Sciences, GPA: 3.3

Awards

Highlighted in the Texas Tech Discoveries Magazine and won 2nd place at at the Golden Key International Honour Society International Poster Session for STEM work on "Listening to the Human Brain, an exploratory study of EEGs" under the direction of Dr. Carl Seaquist.