

Robert (Chip) Hilary Cox

Department of Social Studies
Harmony School of Nature
8120 W. Camp Wisdom Road
Dallas, Texas 75249
972-296-1000 x 317
rcox@harmonytx.org

Education:

Received: Masters of Arts in History with a Journalism minor, 2017

University of North Texas

Received: Bachelor of Science in History with Teaching Certificate, 2011

Texas A&M University at Commerce

Research Areas:

Twentieth Century, Social and Cultural (especially Popular Culture), Intellectual Property, Middle East

Conference Papers:

"Film and Historical Memory: The Crafting of Belief," Undergraduate Interdisciplinary Student Research Conference, 2011

"Intellectual Property: A Solution for the United States," UNT Phi Alpha Theta Conference 2014

"Intellectual Property: First World Problems," TWU Phi Alpha Theta Conference, 2014

Awards and Honors:

President's List, Texas A&M University-Commerce (Spring 2010, Spring 2011)

Dean's List, Texas A&M University-Commerce (Fall 2011)

Teaching Employment:

Student Teacher at Commerce High School, Fall 2011 - Certified to Teach History in the State of Texas,

Taught Pre-AP World History, United States History since Reconstruction, AP United States History

Teaching Assistant at the University of North Texas, Fall 2013 - Spring 2014

U.S. History I (2 sessions), U.S. History II (1 session), and U.S. Environmental History

Teacher at Harmony School of Nature, Fall 2015 – current

Taught U.S. History, AP U.S. History, Government, Economics, World Geography, World History, and AP World History

Robert (Chip) Hilary Cox

Other Employment:

UNT History Department - History Help Center, Denton, Texas, 2012-2014

Document Management Support - Tenet Account, Perot Systems, Plano, Texas, 2008-2009

Tenet Service Desk - Tenet Account, Perot Systems, Plano, Texas, 2007-2008

Team Lead Tenet Service Desk - Tenet Account, Perot Systems, Plano, Texas, 2006-2007